► Procedure

1 Deciding the Main Role, '天', '地' and '人' roles.

From among ^{kazai} 花材 you have prepared, decide which flower is to play the main role.

Imagine a total design that will allow the main role flower to come into the center of the arrangement, and then, while considering thickness and length, '天', '地' and '人' roles.

2 Arrange the '天'.

Cut '天' for it to be 2.5 times as long as the diameter of the vase.

Stick '天' on ^{kenzan} 剣山 firmly.

3 Arrange the '地'.

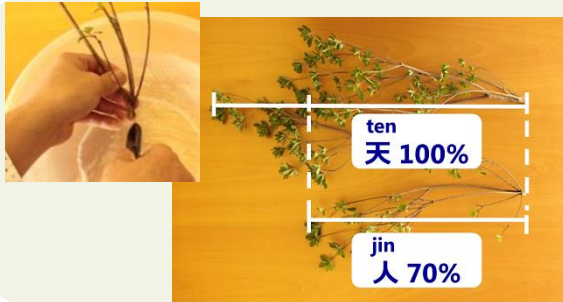

Cut '地' so that it's 30% the length of '天'.

Stick '地' on 剣山 firmly.

4 Arrange the '人'.

Cut '人' so that it's 70% the length of '天'.

Stick '人' on 剣山 firmly.

5 Add flowers and adjust arrangement.

Add flowers to '天', '地' and '人' so as to avoid the overlap of their length and direction.

Point!

Be sure to consider the balance and unity of the entire arrangement !

6 Finish.

Place it in a location you'd like to decorate, add some water, and then it's finished.

Point!

Don't forget to replace water from time to time!
